

A MOMENT BEYOND TIME

A M O M E N T B E Y O N D T I M E

The moment of lighting the Shabbat candles and reciting the bracha is an invitation to the union that existed shortly before Hashem created the world. Thinking of Shabbat as a gift that Hashem has only given to Am Israel reminds me that it is a moment of intimacy between Him and me, between Hashem and Am Israel. This makes the moment really special, something that we must treasure as the highest of our possessions.
